Eisteddfod! Eisteddfod! Eisteddfod!

Dydd Gŵyl Dewi hapus (hwyr) i chi gyd! Fe ddathlwyd y diwrnod drwy gynnal Eisteddfod yr ysgol. Fe glywsom ganu a llefaru o'r safon uchaf yn o gystal â dawnsio egnïol a chreadigol, ac fe rannwyd tystysgrifau di-ri am eu hymdrechion yn y cystadlaethau llawysgrifen a thynnu llun. Llongyfarchiadau mawr i Elen Townson ac i William Cope am ennill gwobrau'r gadair am eu gwaith llenyddiaeth, cyflawniad y gallant yn sicr fod yn falch ohono a llongyfarchiadau i lys Garth am eu buddugoliaeth eleni. Nhw yw'r ail lys i dderbyn tlws newydd sbon ein Heisteddfod ysgol. Diolch hefyd i Ian Cullen am greu tlysau mor arbennig ar gyfer yr achlysur!

(A belated) Happy St David's Day to you all! The day was celebrated by holding the school Eisteddfod. We heard singing and recitation of the highest quality and witnessed some very creative dancing. Countless certificates for their efforts in the handwriting and drawing competitions were also shared. Congratulations to Elen Townson and William Cope for winning the bard prizes for their literacy work, an achievement they can certainly be proud of and congratulations to Garth for their victory in this year's competition. They are the second house to receive the school Eisteddfod's brand-new trophy. Thank you also to Ian Cullen for creating and donating the awards for this year's winners!
